

We're delighted you want to apply for an audition or backstage interview with the National Youth Theatre. Please read through the terms and conditions thoroughly before booking your place.

Terms and Conditions

- 1) Cancelling or rescheduling an Audition
 - a) Unfortunately due to the high volume of young people we meet we are unable to arrange refunds or exchanges on audition and interview slots. If you have missed an audition or interview or are no longer able to attend a previously booked audition you are welcome to book an alternative day. You can do this via our website where you can find information about other dates and venues that we have available:

www.nyt.org.uk/auditions

- b) Should you be facing significant financial hardship, and are unable to raise the funds to purchase an alternative audition slot, you may be eligible to apply for a bursary to cover the cost of an alternative audition or interview. We will review your application and should you meet our bursary criteria we may be able to provide financial assistance. You can find a bursary application form and guidance on our website, please see the link below:
