

REFERENCE

2017NYT BursaryFund

National Youth Theatre has a small bursary fund that is reserved for those in most need of financial support to take part in our activity.

A young person who has been offered a place on a National Youth Theatre training course or project this year would like you to act as a referee to support their application to the NYT Bursary Fund.

As a referee, you should be independent – you should not be:

- 1) a member of the young person's family
- 2) a friend of the young person or their family.

All you need to do is complete this form and give it to the young person to send to us.

If, in your opinion, it is possible for this young person to raise their own funds, then it would not be appropriate for you to provide a reference.

Please feel free to attach further information if you think it helpful. Please note that the fund is limited and depends on our success in raising funds each year. We cannot guarantee that every application to the fund will be successful or the full amount applied for can be granted.
